

I believe the new allocation at 5 MHz will be very beneficial to hurricane and other emergency communications. If interference with other services is anticipated, the maximum power could be limited to 200 watts.

ARS: WA5TWL